

The Havendale Sensory Story

Havendale is a luxury, accessible holiday property in the Heart of Derbyshire.

This means it is a place where I can eat, sleep, relax and enjoy the company of whoever is with me.

When I stay at Havendale...

Outside I might see...

Flowers in the garden

Apples growing on the trees

The famous Crooked Church Spire

Fantastic accessible attractions nearby

When I stay at Havendale...

Inside I might see...

The flames of the log fire

The accessible bathroom

The Sensory Lights

The clouds through the skylight

When I stay at Havendale...

I might hear...

The water running in the shower

Films and programmes on the TV

Laughter and chatter of my loved ones

Bees buzzing in the trees

When I stay at Havendale...

I might touch or feel...

The slate stone of the fireplace

The soft, cosy blankets

The Sensory Toys

The comfortable Adjustamatic beds

When I stay at Havendale...

I might taste...

A delicious breakfast in the morning

A cup of Yorkshire Tea

Tasty Welcome Treats from the owners

My favourite drink in the Easy-Grip cups

When I stay at Havendale...

I might smell...

Food cooking on the barbeque outside

Meals being prepared in the kitchen

Soap products in the shower

Fresh flowers on the table

Most of all Havendale is a place where I can enjoy the company of my family and friends, or whoever is with me.
